

MOEBE is looking for a graphic design student to join our Copenhagen studio in Spring 2027

Hi - we're MOEBE.

We're looking for a graphic design student to work closely with our creative team supporting day-to-day graphic design tasks and larger projects across print and digital.

What we do
We design furniture and objects across many scales, though always with the same goal: less stuff, but better stuff.

That means designing things that last, can be repaired, and can be responsibly produced close to home. We bring the same care and attention to how we communicate them.

What you'll be doing
- Layouting catalogues and sales materials
- Creating content for our website, newsletters and social media
- Preparing photo and video content for product stories
- Helping with graphics for launches, campaigns and events

What we're looking for
- You're studying graphic design or visual communication
- You have an eye for typography, layout and imagery
- You're comfortable in InDesign, Illustrator, Premiere Pro and Photoshop
- You take initiative, enjoy working with others and speak English

How to apply
To apply please send a digital copy of your CV and Portfolio to: jobs@moebe.dk

Please quote 'Design Internship' in the subject field of the email.

Deadline
